

Kens “Who am I ?” Bird Quiz

10 Bird Anagrams

Leicestershire
& Rutland
Wildlife Trust

Kens “Who am I ?” Bird Quiz

Each page has a set of clues !

The last sentence is “I am a”

This is followed by its name but the letters are all mixed up! This is an ANAGRAM.

Reorder the letters to name the bird!

You have 10 birds to name.....Go!

I live in woods and thick bushes.

My feathers are different shades of brown.

I eat insects, bugs and worms.

People say I have a very nice voice when I sing.

I am the ELAGNITHGIN

I live near lakes, rivers and streams.

I am very brightly coloured, blue above with orange and white underneath.

I eat small fish and water creatures.

I am the REIHSFGIKN.

I live in woods, gardens, and you will recognise me by my harsh chatter.

My feathers are glossy black and white, with a bit of green or blue if the light catches me.

I have a long black tail. I eat anything I can find or steal.

I am the GMAIEP.

I love the open country, fields and hills. My feathers are brown with lighter streaks and my outside tail feathers have white on them. I hover high up in the sky and sing, and then come down to earth again and run to my nest.

I am the KRLAKSY.

I live in ponds, marshes, lakes and rivers.
My feathers are nearly black with white lines on the sides. My beak is red and yellow.
When I swim, my heads goes backwards
and forwards, and when I walk I flick my tail.

I am the MONERHO

I live in woods and parks.

My feathers are green, greenish-yellow and red.

When I call out it sounds like a loud laugh.

I like holes in trees.

I am the KRECPEODWONERGE

You can find me during the summer and will often see me skimming low over water.

I have blackish blue feathers on my back and a long forked tail.

I eat insects.

I am the WASLWOL

There used to be a lot of me, but not so many now.

I am brown, with a black bib because I am a male.

I chirp a lot.

I am the OWRASRPEHOSU

I like the open country. I am not very big.

During the winter I am mostly brown, but in spring and summer I get red on my head and chest.

I am a sweet singer.

I am the ENTNLI

I get about a lot. I like the edges of lakes and rivers, but also fields, lawns and gardens.

I can run very fast when I am catching insects.

I find it hard to keep my tail still.

I am the GAIELITAWDP

Answers to follow !